

Allowing businesses that I have had some relationship with to call me whenever they like will result in telephone "spam" just like the internet kind. I have "spam" elimination software, and the equivalent in Indiana is our "no call" law. Do not allow exceptions! Thank you.